

Jeannette Marshall

Board Level Executive Coach

Based in: United KingdomLanguages: English

Jeannette's client-centred approach to coaching, incorporating elements of behavioural coaching, transitional coaching, and NLP performance coaching, has led to work with Board level and Senior Manager staff in finance, IT, insurance, retail, health, public services, local and central government, telecommunications, and engineering.

Working directly with CEOs, MDs, Board members and Heads of Divisions, she has coached to increase personal effectiveness; create, implement and action succession planning; implement radical organisational restructuring; support role transition and develop the to manage, motivate and inspire teams.

Qualifications, accreditations and memberships

- Accredited Coach (Distinction), Coaching Academy
- Accredited Coach, Founding UK Council Member and Honorary Life member, Association for Coaching
- Diploma in Performance Coaching (Newcastle College)
- Certificate in Management.

Coaching style

Jeannette uses a client-centred approach, incorporating elements of behavioural coaching, transitional coaching, NLP performance coaching and other interventions – whatever is specific to the client taking into account their skills, experience, learning style and approach.

Within the coaching parameters she uses her breadth of coaching skills, her experience, and her training to understand and support the client. She adopts an integrated coaching approach, using tools and techniques which are client specific. She helps to provide inspiration, perspective and gives honest feedback to clients to assist in their personal development.